

Freeman M. Chakara

Providence Behavioral Health

219 W. Main St.

Leola, PA 17540-1753

(717) 556-0149

Fax – 556-0149

Email info@providencebehavioral.com

www.providencebehavioral.com

Type of Professional: Psychologist Male Birth Date: 06/12/67

Highest Academic Degree: Psy.D.(2000) Clinical Psych/Neuropsych/School Psych, Widener

University

Licenses & Certificates: Psychologist, 2001; Certified School Psychologist, 1998; Certified Neuropsychologist, 2000

Hourly Session Fee $100 Hour = 50 minutes

Extended Hours evenings

Approved For & Accepts:

Medicare, Medicaid, Access, Alliance Health Plan, Blues, Educators, Optimum Choice/MAMSI, OVR

Primary Orientations

Psychoanalytic

Orientations

Cognitive/Behavioral, Religious, Social Learning

Primary Therapies Provided

individual, play, stress management

Therapies Provided

marriage, behavioral

Tests Provided

IQ, learning disabilities, academic, disability, neuropsychological, vocational, developmental delays, personality, projectives, competency (forensic), attention deficit disorder

Expert Witness

disability, right to education, personal injury, capacity to make contracts

Ages Treated

all ages

Special Populations Treated

head injured, religious, developmentally delayed

Key Problems Treated

organic mental disorders, learning disabilities, academic problems

All Problems Treated

ADHD, conduct disorders, childhood anxiety, dementias, mood disorders, anxiety disorders, impulse control, adjustment disorders, personality disorders, occupational problems, parent-child problems, interpersonal, low self-esteem, learning disabilities

Talks Provided -

Neuropsychological Perspectives On Pervasive Developmental Disorders

Changes In Socio-Emotional Functioning Following Brain Injury

The Role Of Neuropsychology In Pediatric Care

Introductions To The Assessment Of Learning Disabilities

Neuropsychological Perspectives On Reading

Professional Memberships

LLPA, APA, National Academy of Neuropsychologists (NAN), American Assn of Christian Counselors (AACC)

COMMENT:

I provide comprehensive neuropsychological evaluations for children and adults. From a functional assessment, we create individualized interventions based on research and test data. Consultations and expert witness testimony based on individualized review of cases presented.