

Gary Friedman

Lancaster Anger Management Program

2461 Lititz Pike

Lancaster, PA 17601

(717) 560-3525

Fax - 560-3995

Email friedman_g@comcast.net

Type of Professional: Psychologist Male Birth Date: 12/14/52

Highest Academic Degree: Ph.D.(1998) Psychology, California Coast University

Licenses & Certificates: Psychologist, 1988; School Psychologist Certification, 1979

Hourly Session Fee $90 Hour = 55 minutes

Extended Hours evenings

Approved For & Accepts:

Aetna, Blues, Capital Blue Cross, Health Assurance, HighMark, Medicaid, Medicare, Magellan, Preferred Health Care, Quest, Value Options/Behavioral, Matrix, Guard, Pacificare

Primary Orientations

Cognitive/Behavioral

Orientations

Eclectic, Multi-Modal, Psychodynamic, Solution-Focused, Family Systems, Rational-Emotive, 12-Step, Phenomenological

Primary Therapies Provided

individual, family, group

Therapies Provided

relaxation, meditation, behavioral, stress management, marriage

Tests Provided

IQ, learning disabilities, academic, personality, projectives, ADHD, D&A evaluations

Expert Witness

none

Ages Treated

teens, adults

Special Populations Treated

adult child of alcoholic, incest victim, addicts

Key Problems Treated

D&A abuse & addictions, adjustment disorders, parent-child problems

All Problems Treated

ADHD, conduct disorders, childhood anxiety, eating disorders, mood disorders, anxiety disorders, post-traumatic stress, personality disorders, low self-esteem, learning disabilities, interpersonal

Talks Provided -

Student Assistance Team Maintenance

Anger Management

Professional Memberships

APA, LLPA, National Assn of School Psychologists (NASP)

COMMENT:

Student assistance at secondary level, including mental health and drug & alcohol evaluations and special education/psycho-educational evaluations. Administers and founded Lancaster Anger Management Program, an approved alternative-sentencing program. Consultation work in schools for full time private practice